

Questionnaire to performance, selection, care and use of industrial protective headwear
according to Standard Z94.1-05 (reaffirmed 2013)
Canada

1) Determination of required level of impact protection

Type 1 (crown only) or is it a Type 2 (crown and lateral) headwear?

2) Determination of required level of dielectric protection

Class E – Protection up to 20 000 V

Class G – Protection up to 2200 V

Class C – No dielectric protection

3) Determination of headwear orientation

Does the headwear need to be worn with the peak forward or backward to accommodate other personal protective equipment such as a welding helmet or face shield, or to enhance visibility?

Forward

Backward

4) Determination of required style of headwear

Is protection from sun, rain, etc. required? If so, full brim headwear may be required.

Full brim

Cap style

5) Determination of whether protection from special processes and unique hazards:

Specify:

6) Determination of whether a chinstrap is required

Chinstrap required?

yes

no

7) Determination of whether high visibility is required

High visibility required?

yes

no

Additional information: